CASE NUMBER: 5:22-cr-00043

SUPERVISED RELEASE

Upon release from imprisonment, you will be on supervised release for a term of:

Twenty-five (25) years

MANDATORY CONDITIONS

1. You must not commit another federal, state or local crime.
2. You must not unlawfully possess a controlled substance.
3. You must refrain from any unlawful use of a controlled substance. You must submit to one drug test within 15 days of release from imprisonment and at least two periodic drug tests thereafter, as determined by the court.
 - ☐ The above drug testing condition is suspended, based on the court's determination that you pose a low risk of future substance abuse. (check if applicable)
4. ☐ You must make restitution in accordance with 18 U.S.C. §§ 3663 and 3663A or any other statute authorizing a sentence of restitution. (check if applicable)
5. ☒ You must cooperate in the collection of DNA as directed by the probation officer. (check if applicable)
6. ☒ You must comply with the requirements of the Sex Offender Registration and Notification Act (34 U.S.C. § 20901, et seq.) as directed by the probation officer, the Bureau of Prisons, or any state sex offender registration agency in the location where you reside, work, are a student, or were convicted of a qualifying offense. (check if applicable)
7. ☐ You must participate in an approved program for domestic violence. (check if applicable)

You must comply with the standard conditions that have been adopted by this court as well as with any other conditions on the attached page.

DEFENDANT: JAMES EDWARD COOK
CASE NUMBER: 5:22-cr-00043STANDARD CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

As part of your supervised release, you must comply with the following standard conditions of supervision. These conditions are imposed because they establish the basic expectations for your behavior while on supervision and identify the minimum tools needed by probation officers to keep informed, report to the court about, and bring about improvements in your conduct and condition.

1. You must report to the probation office in the federal judicial district where you are authorized to reside within 72 hours of your release from imprisonment, unless the probation officer instructs you to report to a different probation office or within a different time frame.
2. After initially reporting to the probation office, you will receive instructions from the court or the probation officer about how and when you must report to the probation officer, and you must report to the probation officer as instructed.
3. You must not knowingly leave the federal judicial district where you are authorized to reside without first getting permission from the court or the probation officer.
4. You must answer truthfully the questions asked by your probation officer.
5. You must live at a place approved by the probation officer. If you plan to change where you live or anything about your living arrangements (such as the people you live with), you must notify the probation officer at least 10 days before the change. If notifying the probation officer in advance is not possible due to unanticipated circumstances, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours of becoming aware of a change or expected change.
6. You must allow the probation officer to visit you at any time at your home or elsewhere, and you must permit the probation officer to take any items prohibited by the conditions of your supervision that he or she observes in plain view.
7. You must work full time (at least 30 hours per week) at a lawful type of employment, unless the probation officer excuses you from doing so. If you do not have full-time employment you must try to find full-time employment, unless the probation officer excuses you from doing so. If you plan to change where you work or anything about your work (such as your position or your job responsibilities), you must notify the probation officer at least 10 days before the change. If notifying the probation officer at least 10 days in advance is not possible due to unanticipated circumstances, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours of becoming aware of a change or expected change.
8. You must not communicate or interact with someone you know is engaged in criminal activity. If you know someone has been convicted of a felony, you must not knowingly communicate or interact with that person without first getting the permission of the probation officer.
9. If you are arrested or questioned by a law enforcement officer, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours.
10. You must not own, possess, or have access to a firearm, ammunition, destructive device, or dangerous weapon (i.e., anything that was designed, or was modified for, the specific purpose of causing bodily injury or death to another person such as nunchakus or tasers).
11. You must not act or make any agreement with a law enforcement agency to act as a confidential human source or informant without first getting the permission of the court.
12. If the probation officer determines that you pose a risk to another person (including an organization), the probation officer may require you to notify the person about the risk and you must comply with that instruction. The probation officer may contact the person and confirm that you have notified the person about the risk.
13. You must follow the instructions of the probation officer related to the conditions of supervision.

U.S. Probation Office Use Only

A U.S. probation officer has instructed me on the conditions specified by the court and has provided me with a written copy of this judgment containing these conditions. DEFENDANT: JAMES EDWARD COOK
CASE NUMBER: 5:22-cr-00043

ADDITIONAL STANDARD CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

118. In addition to the above Standard Conditions of supervised release, the defendant is subject to the following six Additional Standard Conditions pursuant to Local Rule of Criminal Procedure 32.3, as adopted by the Judges of this District.

119. If the defendant is unemployed, the probation office may direct the defendant to register and remain active with Workforce West Virginia.

120. Defendants shall submit to random urinalysis or any drug screening method whenever the same is deemed appropriate by the probation officer and shall participate in a substance abuse program as directed by the probation officer. Defendants shall not use any method or device to evade a drug screen.

121. As directed by the probation officer, the defendant will make co-payments for drug testing and drug treatment services at rates determined by the probation officer in accordance with a court-approved schedule based on ability to pay and availability of third-party payments.

122. A term of community service is imposed on every defendant on supervised release or probation. Fifty hours of community service is imposed on every defendant for each year the defendant is on supervised release or probation. The obligation for community service is waived if the defendant remains fully employed or actively seeks such employment throughout the year.

123. The defendant shall not possess a firearm, ammunition, destructive device, or any other dangerous weapon (i.e., anything that was designed, or was modified for, the specific purpose of causing bodily injury or death to another person such as nunchakus or tasers), and shall reside in a residence free from such items.

124. The defendant shall not purchase, possess, or consume any organic or synthetic intoxicants, including bath salts, synthetic cannabinoids, or other designer stimulants.

Sex Offender Conditions

125. In addition to the above conditions in this District, it is respectfully recommended that the defendant be subject to the following Standard and Optional Conditions of supervision for sex offenders.

Standard Conditions

126. The defendant shall have no direct or indirect contact, at any time, for any reason, with the victim(s) identified in the presentence report or the victim's family.

Justification: The instant offense is of a sexual nature involving a purported nine-year-old minor female victim. There is no identifiable victim in the instant offense. Therefore, the condition does not appear to be applicable.

127. The defendant shall submit to an evaluation by a qualified mental health professional, approved by the probation officer, who is experienced in treatment of sexual offenders. The defendant shall take all medications reasonably related to treatment of his or her condition, complete all treatment recommendations and abide by all rules, requirements and conditions imposed by the professional. The defendant must do so until discharged from treatment by the professional. Prior to being required to submit any proposed course of treatment, the defendant or the United States may seek review by the presiding district judge of any facet of the prescribed course of treatment. The United States and the defendant shall also have the right to seek review by the presiding district judge of any continuation or discontinuation of such treatment.

Justification: The instant offense is of a sexual nature involving a purported nine-year-old minor female victim. The defendant communicated with the purported minor female through Facebook Messenger and audio calls on his cellular phone. Throughout all communications with the purported minor female victim, the defendant discussed engaging in various sexual acts with the minor female, including receiving and performing oral sex from/on the minor female and engaging in sexual intercourse. On the date of his arrest, the defendant had attempted to meet the purported minor female to engage in the aforementioned acts. This condition will help guide the probation officer in adequate supervision of the defendant and to make necessary treatment and other referrals for the defendant.

128. The defendant shall submit to risk assessments, psychological and physiological testing, which may include, but is not limited to, a polygraph examination or other specific tests to monitor the defendant's compliance with probation or supervised release treatment conditions, at the direction of the probation officer.

Justification: The instant offense is of a sexual nature involving a purported nine-year-old minor female victim. The defendant communicated with the purported minor female through Facebook Messenger and audio calls on his cellular phone. Throughout all communications with the purported minor female victim, the defendant discussed engaging in various sexual acts with the minor female, including receiving and performing oral sex from/on the minor female and engaging in sexual intercourse. This condition will help guide the probation officer in adequate supervision of the defendant and to make necessary treatment and other referrals for the defendant.

DEFENDANT: JAMES EDWARD COOK
CASE NUMBER: 5:22-cr-00043

ADDITIONAL STANDARD CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

129. The defendant's residence and employment shall be approved by the probation officer. Such approval shall not be unreasonably withheld. Any proposed change in residence or employment must be provided to the probation officer at least 10 days prior to the change and pre-approved before the change may take place. If such notification is not possible due to unanticipated circumstances, the defendant must notify the probation officer within 72 hours of becoming aware of the change or expected change.

Justification: The instant offense is of a sexual nature involving a purported nine-year-old minor female victim. The defendant communicated with the purported minor female through Facebook Messenger and audio calls on his cellular phone. Throughout all communications with the purported minor female victim, the defendant discussed engaging in various sexual acts with the minor female, including receiving and performing oral sex from/on the minor female and engaging in sexual intercourse. This condition will help guide the probation officer in adequate supervision of the defendant and to make necessary treatment and other referrals for the defendant.

130. The defendant shall comply with the requirements of the Sex Offender Registration and Notification Act (34 U.S.C. § 20901, et seq.) and/or register as directed by the probation officer. The defendant shall register with any local and/or State Sex Offender Registration agency in any state or federal territory where the defendant resides, is employed, carries on a vocation, or is a student, or was convicted of a qualifying offense, pursuant to state law.

Justification: The instant offense are of a sexual nature involving a purported nine-year-old minor female victim, and the registration is required.

Optional Conditions

131. The term "minor" with respect to any condition of supervised release refers to one who is under the age of eighteen (18) years.

132. The defendant shall not associate or have verbal, written, telephonic or electronic communications with any minor except: 1) in the presence of the parent or legal guardian of said minor; 2) on the condition that the defendant notifies the parent or legal guardian of the defendant's sex offender conviction(s); and 3) with written approval from the probation officer, which shall not be unreasonably withheld. This provision does not encompass associating or communicating with minors working as waiters, cashiers, ticket vendors, and similar service personnel with whom the defendant must associate or communicate in order to obtain ordinary and usual commercial services, so long as such associations or communications are limited exclusively to those which are necessary and proper for obtaining the aforementioned services.

Justification: The instant offense is of a sexual nature involving a purported nine-year-old minor female victim. The defendant communicated with the purported minor female through Facebook Messenger and audio calls on his cellular phone. Throughout all communications with the purported minor female victim, the defendant discussed engaging in various sexual acts with the minor female, including receiving and performing oral sex from/on the minor female and engaging in sexual intercourse. On the date of his arrest, the defendant had attempted to meet the purported minor female to engage in the aforementioned acts. This condition is recommended to protect any children with whom the defendant may come in contact, and to provide added supervision and accountability by ensuring the parent(s) of said children are aware of the danger posed by the defendant.

133. The defendant must not view or possess any "visual depiction" (as defined in 18 U.S.C. § 2256) including any photograph, film, video, picture, or computer or computer-generated image or picture, whether made or produced by electronic, mechanical, or other means, of "sexually explicit conduct" (as defined in 18 U.S.C. § 2256), for the purpose of sexual gratification and would compromise any sex-offense specific treatment.

Justification: The instant offense is of a sexual nature involving a purported nine-year-old minor female. In the instant offense, the defendant expressed his intent to record himself on his cellular phone engaging in sexual acts with the purported minor female. This condition is necessary because possession of such materials is compromising to sex offender treatment. This optional condition is further recommended to help guide the probation officer in adequate supervision, while also serving to benefit the defendant during treatment.

134. The defendant must not possess or use a computer or other device (as defined in 18 U.S.C. § 1030(e)(1)) capable of Internet access until a Computer Use Agreement is developed and approved by the sex offender treatment provider and/or probation officer. Such approval will not be unreasonably withheld. Such computers, computer hardware or software possessed solely by the defendant is subject to searches and/or seizures by the probation office.

DEFENDANT: JAMES EDWARD COOK
CASE NUMBER: 5:22-cr-00043

ADDITIONAL STANDARD CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

Justification: The instant offense is of a sexual nature involving a purported nine-year-old minor female victim. The defendant communicated with the purported minor female through Facebook Messenger and audio calls on his cellular phone. Throughout all communications with the purported minor female victim, the defendant discussed engaging in various sexual acts with the minor female, including receiving and performing oral sex from/on the minor female and engaging in sexual intercourse. The defendant primarily utilized the internet and his cellular phone to communicate with the purported nine-year-old minor victim. The defendant also stated his intent to record himself on his cellular phone engaging in sexual acts with the purported minor female. This condition is recommended to protect any children with whom the defendant may come in contact with using electronic devices connected to the internet. Further, this condition allows the probation officer to adequately supervise the defendant.

135. The defendant shall not engage in any forms of exhibitionism, voyeurism, obscene phone calls or other lewd or lascivious behavior toward a minor, nor engage in “grooming” behavior that is apt to attract, seduce reduce sexual resistance or inhibitions of a minor.

Justification: The instant offense is of a sexual nature involving a purported nine-year-old minor female victim. The defendant communicated with the purported minor female through Facebook Messenger and audio calls on his cellular phone. Throughout all communications with the purported minor female victim, the defendant discussed engaging in various sexual acts with the minor female, including receiving and performing oral sex from/on the minor female and engaging in sexual intercourse. On the date of his arrest, the defendant had attempted to meet the purported minor female to engage in the aforementioned acts. This condition is recommended to protect any children with whom the defendant may come in contact, and to provide added supervision and accountability by ensuring the parent(s) of said children are aware of the danger posed by the defendant.

136. The defendant shall not possess minor’s clothing, toys, games, or the like without permission of the probation officer, which shall not be unreasonably withheld.

Justification: The instant offense is of a sexual nature involving a purported nine-year-old minor female victim. The defendant communicated with the purported minor female through Facebook Messenger and audio calls on his cellular phone. Throughout all communications with the purported minor female victim, the defendant discussed engaging in various sexual acts with the minor female, including receiving and performing oral sex from/on the minor female and engaging in sexual intercourse. In addition, the defendant specifically asked the purported minor to bring a “sexy” outfit to their scheduled meeting. This condition will help guide the probation officer in adequate supervision of the defendant and to make necessary treatment and other referrals for the defendant.

137. The defendant shall not be employed in any position or participate as a volunteer in any activity that involves contact with minors without written permission from the probation officer, which shall not be unreasonably withheld. The defendant may not engage in an activity that involves being in a position of trust or authority over any minor.

Justification: The instant offense is of a sexual nature involving a purported nine-year-old minor female victim. The defendant communicated with the purported minor female through Facebook Messenger and audio calls on his cellular phone. Throughout all communications with the purported minor female victim, the defendant discussed engaging in various sexual acts with the minor female, including receiving and performing oral sex from/on the minor female and engaging in sexual intercourse. The defendant also asked the purported minor female if she had any “pretty girlfriends.” On the date of his arrest, the defendant had attempted to meet the purported minor female to engage in the aforementioned acts. This condition is recommended to protect any children with whom the defendant may come in contact, and to provide added supervision and accountability by ensuring the parent of said child(ren) are aware of the danger posed by the defendant.

138. The defendant shall allow the U.S. Probation Officer, or other designee, to install software designed to monitor computer activities on any computer the defendant is authorized to use. This may include, but is not limited to, software that may record any and all activity on computers (as defined in 18 U.S.C. § 1030(e)(1)) the defendant may use, including the capture of keystrokes, application information, internet use history, email correspondence, and chat conversations. The defendant shall pay any costs related to the monitoring of computer usage at the direction of the probation officer.

Justification: The instant offense is of a sexual nature involving a purported nine-year-old minor female victim. The defendant communicated with the purported minor female through Facebook Messenger and audio calls on his cellular phone. Throughout all communications with the purported minor female victim, the defendant discussed engaging in various sexual acts with the minor female, including receiving and performing oral sex from/on the minor female and engaging in sexual intercourse. The defendant primarily utilized the internet and his cellular phone to communicate with the purported nine-year-old minor victim. The defendant also stated his intent to record himself on his cellular phone engaging in sexual acts with the purported minor female. This condition is recommended to protect any children with whom the defendant may come in contact with using electronic devices connected to the internet. Further, this condition allows the probation officer to adequately supervise the defendant.

DEFENDANT: JAMES EDWARD COOK

CASE NUMBER: 5:22-cr-00043

ADDITIONAL STANDARD CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

139. The defendant shall not possess pictures of minors for the purpose of sexual gratification.

Justification: The instant offense is of a sexual nature involving a purported nine-year-old minor female victim. The defendant communicated with the purported minor female through Facebook Messenger and audio calls on his cellular phone.

Throughout all communications with the purported minor female victim, the defendant discussed engaging in various sexual acts with the minor female, including receiving and performing oral sex from/on the minor female and engaging in sexual intercourse. The defendant primarily utilized the internet and his cellular phone to communicate with the purported nine-year-old minor victim. The defendant also stated his intent to record himself on his cellular phone engaging in sexual acts with the purported minor female. This condition will help guide the probation officer in adequate supervision of the defendant and to make necessary treatment and other referrals for the defendant.

140. The defendant shall submit his or her person, property, house, residence, vehicle, papers, or office to a search conducted by a United States probation officer when there is reasonable suspicion that the defendant has violated a condition of supervision. Prior to the search, the Probation Officer must obtain approval for the search from the Court. The search must be conducted at a reasonable time and in a reasonable manner. Failure to submit to a search may be grounds for revocation of release. The defendant shall inform other occupants that the premises may be subject to searches pursuant to this condition.

Justification: The instant offense is of a sexual nature involving a purported nine-year-old minor female victim. The defendant communicated with the purported minor female through Facebook Messenger and audio calls on his cellular phone.

Throughout all communications with the purported minor female victim, the defendant discussed engaging in various sexual acts with the minor female, including receiving and performing oral sex from/on the minor female and engaging in sexual intercourse. The defendant primarily utilized the internet and his cellular phone to communicate with the purported nine-year-old minor victim. The defendant also stated his intent to record himself on his cellular phone engaging in sexual acts with the purported minor female. Additionally, had this not been an undercover operation, the defendant would have met and engaged in sexual acts with the purported minor female. The defendant organized a ride to meet with the purported minor female at Liberty High School in Glen Daniel, West Virginia. In order to obtain the ride, the defendant told the purported minor female to say she was his girlfriend's daughter when they picked her up. This condition allows the probation officer to promote public safety through effective oversight of higher-risk defendants and by assisting with rehabilitation efforts. The condition may also deter criminal conduct and permit a probation officer to intervene quickly when reasonable suspicion exists that a defendant has engaged in criminal conduct or otherwise violated a condition of supervision.

NOTE: This condition has been approved by the Judicial Conference of the United States; approved by the Administrative Office of U.S. Courts and incorporated in the model condition language; appears as a condition of supervised release that the Court may explicitly order pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3583(d); and is recommended by the U.S. Sentencing Commission at U.S.S.G. § 5D1.3(d)(7)(C).

DEFENDANT: JAMES EDWARD COOK
CASE NUMBER: 5:22-cr-00043

SPECIAL CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

Special Conditions

141. In addition to the above Mandatory and Standard Conditions of supervised release, the probation officer recommends that the defendant be subject to the following Special Conditions of supervised release.

142. You must comply with the requirements of the Sex Offender Registration and Notification Act (34 U.S.C. § 20901, et seq.) as directed by the probation officer, the Bureau of Prisons, or any state sex offender registration agency in the location where you reside, work, are a student, or were convicted of a qualifying offense.

Justification: The defendant is a convicted sex offender and subject to a registration requirement pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3583(d).

143. You must participate in a mental health treatment program and follow the rules and regulations of the program. The probation officer, in consultation with the treatment provider, will supervise your participation in the program.

Justification: The defendant has an identified mental health diagnosis in his personal history (PTSD).

144. You must not use or possess alcohol.

Justification: The defendant has a documented history of serious alcohol abuse, including criminal history related to the abuse of alcohol.

145. The defendant shall pay an additional special assessment of $5,000. If not paid immediately, the defendant shall pay the assessment in payments not less than $25 per quarter through participation in the Bureau of Prisons' Inmate Financial Responsibility Program. Any remaining balance shall be paid during the term of supervised release.

Justification: The defendant shall pay the special assessment, which will be applied to the Domestic Trafficking Victims' Fund under 18 U.S.C. § 3014.

146. You must provide the probation officer with access to any requested financial information and authorize the release of any financial information. The probation office may share financial information with the U.S. Attorney's Office.

Justification: Should the Court impose the $5,000 special assessment in this case, this condition is necessary for the probation office to oversee the special assessment payments.

147. You must not incur new credit charges or open additional lines of credit without the approval of the probation officer.

Justification: Should the Court impose the $5,000 special assessment in this case, this condition is necessary for the probation office to oversee the special assessment payments.

148. You shall apply all monies received from income tax refunds, lottery winnings, judgments, and any other anticipated or unanticipated financial gains to any outstanding Court imposed monetary obligations.

Justification: Should the Court impose the $5,000 special assessment in this case, this condition is necessary for the probation office to oversee the special assessment payments.

149. The defendant shall cooperate with the IRS with regard to any civil audit of his/her personal and business taxes and shall file all tax returns and amended tax returns as required.

Justification: Should the Court impose the $5,000 special assessment in this case, this condition is necessary for the probation office to oversee the special assessment payments.
